This is Jennie, you refer to me as daughter in-law. I was told about these posts and just thought I would ease your mind that not every one runs around doing whatever they want. I was ordained in 2006, and while yes there are many people in this world who run around choosing to live life how it pleases them, I desire to please the Father. I'm not sure what benefit it would be to anyone to be married by someone who couldn't officiate a wedding.

I'm sure after reading some of these posts that someone will want to say things about our family, but I'll tell you this..... Time is short and the Father is coming quickly, and while I can see that it would be easy to be sucked into wanting to read, comment and defend a thousand things on here, I just don't desire to spend my time that way. There are so many people who still dont know the love of our Lord Jesus Christ, and I would rather spend my time preaching the good news in these times than bickering. I hope that you find some peace and are one day able to move on from whatever hurt you and sent you to this site.

Jennie, you need to stop it. Its 2012. Tell me your not still rolling with this crowd. I would say I feel sorry for you, but I cant. You have seen much over the years. Even the Father that you pray to is shaking his head. For everyone else on this site, I was once with this group of people, been to Silly Matthews place, been to Eddie "pimp daddy" Dushbag place. Its not shocking that this type of stuff happens. That is who they are. For the group that still follow these people, sometimes you have to go thru it to get to the truth. Its a harsh understanding when your eyes are open, and it takes time to recover. For the name calling of Eddie and Billy, its okay. They know exactly what it is they are doing, cant plead ignorance. Andrew, and the truth will set you free.

This is a horrible situation for all involved. It puts a cloud once again on "Christians" it is embarrassing and offensive to "real" believers. I knew Bill and Mary Matthews, they use to travel with my former pastor and would minister in our church from time to time. This is just another sign that we are living in the last days as the Bible says: "Fathers will turn against their sons", in the name of God. Bill, stop hiding behind the name of GOD, this is all you, you have let your carnality take over and blind your judgement, I suppose to you it is fine, because you really believe what you are doing is right, and if you believe it than you are not lying, but, there is something definitely wrong on a moral stand of what you did and continue to do especially to your own flesh and blood, you should be ashamed of yourself and anyone else who supports these decisions should check their spirit, it is wrong!!!

I have traveled with the Matthews' as a group, and have sat at the same dinner table and ate with them, had conversation with Bill and the late Mary, and would have never known what truly lied under this man's facade. A true wolf in sheep's clothing. Andrew, I have never met you but I am praying for you and YOUR daughter that victory will prevail on your behalf.

See from your location that you are located close to another of these 'wolves in sheep's clothing' who are self proclaimed 'DRs','Prophets', and 'Apostles', the leader of the pack, Ed DuFresne. Just a couple of months until another of his big meetings in your area.

love to get you so caught up in offense that you forget that one of the seven things God hates is discord among the brethren, and yet here we are bashing the body of Christ. No one is being helped.

You must ask the question, you attended the church with no issue never having a complaint until you walk out the door, you go on trips, say "I love you pastor I'll never leave God has called me here", "I know that God has blessed me so that I can support the vision"; but remember whatever we sow we shall reap, you should that someone doesn't open up a site and begin to judge you for the wrongs you have committed in your lives, hypothetically what if you were on disability but not reporting that you had opened a cleaning business and were earning money, hypothetically what if you didn't keep your business license current because you were collecting disability, or what if you built a room in the back of your house and didn't get permits from the city to do so, or what if you hired men to do work on your house and then didn't pay them, or what if you hired contractors who had no license to work on your house, or hypothetically what if you had marijuana in your home for medical purposes but were sharing with your family illegally, or hypothetically what if you were on section 8 and weren't reporting your income, or if you got married to a man who makes good money but didn't report the changes to section 8???

Anything can be twisted and made to sound like it favors them, I am sure the alcoholic loves the verse that says Jesus first miracle was he turned water into wine. I hope that someone doesn't turn all your mistakes into a public debate for all to see and judge, or twist them into something that they are not. Or use your ignorance in an area to fault you.

We must be very careful not to be lead away unknowingly, such as calling churches a cult and saying it's witchcraft their being brainwashed, but what are you doing? Gossiping which is witchcraft.

First of all, shut the HELL in you, up. This junk you just typed, sounds like Ed Dufresne sermon or one of his books. I'm not feeling one bit of fear, when I say this. Yeah we all got things that we have done that were not proud of, even when we know right and wrong. But the things that have gone on in these churches have gone on to long. Its one thing to repent and ask for forgiveness. But they just keep going down the same road, hurting the next victims. Bottom line is this, they are all self appointed pastors. For surely God did not call them. Susie and ex member, go ahead and say it, and yell it from the roof tops. Its not like you two are offended and talking trash. It seems to me this stuff is going on world wide. Its time for us to link up, not to destroy the people who are involved with this, but to expose the danger of this stuff.

So right Jason. This is straight from Ed DuFresne. All these self appointed Drs. and Apostles and Prophets use this same message to keep their control of others. The Drs. DuFresne, Matthews, Powers, Jacobs, Webb, etc. are all self serving. It is time for them to be exposed for what they really are, A bunch of ego maniac charletons. Live the rich lifestyle and always scamming from those that can least afford it. Then prey on the unsuspecting females in the 'church'.

Man oh Man. Let the truth be told. Always wondered how a cult becomes a cult. Well I don't no more. What happened in Waco Texas was real sad. How the people refused to come out. What's real sad, is that its happening to a lot of people in churches across this country, and its called brainwashed. Maybe there is no military, federal, or local police outside your church doors on a loud speaker, commanding people to come out. But there are those family, friends, and others who are yelling, GET OUT! So Sad. When I was a member with this type of church, I saw much. Awful things. I was in leadership, got to see things behind close doors. I was young in the faith. Just wanted to do the right thing. Wanted my life as a husband and a father to be better. Walked into a church door, to seek out Jesus. At first, it was all good. You see when your naive to whats really going on, you don't know. So this is what happens: you lay down your guard and began to trust the information that is being fed to you.(church service). You start to open yourself up. Mentally and spiritually. You make friends with those who are members. The pastor and those who are in leadership began to keep an eye on you. They want to see if you tithe and give offerings weekly. They introduce you to the plan of {Ministry of Helps}. They promote you into some sort of leadership. Before you know it you are in a relationship with these people. Then after awhile you began to see things that you would question. But remember, your brainwashed not to

Well said Jason. I hate that you had to go through what you did at the hands of these 'Men of God' but I am glad to know I was not the only one that has been taken in and manipulated by these DRs. I too went through a rough period when I left the 'church' but I found a real church that teaches the principles of Christ and does care about the sinner, not the money. I am still hesitant to let my guard down and truly trust any 'man of God' but I know true Christians are there and I know my Lord and Saviour. These bottom feeder scumbags will get what is coming to them but they are taking so many others with them. I feel sorry for the women and children of these churches.

It's so funny how Bill Matthews and his small weak band of followers continue to hide behind the pulpit and in the walls of that church (the one he stole and refinanced so him and his daughter wife can live there extravagant lifestyle) so true that God will be the judge, I do feel sad for those that choose to feed there own ego by staying there and getting there ears tickled just as long as they pay money to the church. It's pretty interesting when u see that even a judge decided it was unhealthy for Drews daughter to attend dollar bills school. #getaclue

I don't know why people here think they have an extravagant lifestyle. They don't own their own houses, all the cars they drive are cars they are trying to sell and are on notes from the bank. Their everyday life is hard labor at a greasy, run down shop. It is back breaking dirty work. Dollar Bill has to beg from the pulpit every service just to pay all the debt. He might as well be sitting on a street corner with his hat held out, it would be just as glamorous. I don't know about you but I don't envy their life at all. If I was

Dollar Bill at over 60 years old I would be pretty depressed to look at my broken life. He has a felony charge, not much for earthly possessions, he is leaving a legacy of shame, a family that he destroyed. The "friends" he thinks he has talk bad about him behind his back and only stay with him because he gives them offerings and he let's them beg in his pulpit. He had to brain wash his daughter in law into marrying him and she probably throws up a little every night. They preach that you will know men by their fruit. They look like a bunch of rotten fruit. They are reaping some of what they have sewn and I would say the worst is yet to come.

'Dr' Bill may not live an exxtravagant lifestyle now because of all his other problems. I think a lot of the reference to extravagant lifestyles is aimed at the socalled DRs such as DuFresne, Powers, Jacobs, Webb, etc. and Dr Bill at one time. Yes Bill should be living in a life of shame but he is too much an ego maniac, self serving, scum to feel any shame. And that daughter in law wife is just a slut, proven by her actions. Yeah Bill should never have approached his then daughter in law but she was a willing participant and old Bill should be watching her closely because she may be 'counseling' some of the younger men in the church about how to 'please thier wives'. This is a sick group, as is most of the followers of the 'Fresh Oil' group. Look at the leader DuFresne's past, both ED's and Nancy's. And Powers is no better. Great examples of Christians, men and women of God.

If bill would stop spending the churches money on his ridiculassy expensive trips all the time and start putting the money where it belongs like on their bills and to help the members and hey what about reaching out into the community and winning the lost they may not be in such mess! But as we know it is far more important to feed egos and "look" and "sound" like your prosperous than it is to do the Lords work! The only winner here is the devil these last days are filling up with many who once believed with all their heart but were taken for everything they had and are beginning to fall away. It may be difficult but we have to fight our way back to when we were first told the truth in the scriptures...forget about the mess keep our eyes on His coming!! HE IS COMING SOON HOLD FAST AND GRAB AS MANY PEOPLE AS YOU CAN TO COME WITH!

Actually, in Bill's case, I would rather that he left the community alone. If it was a healthy ministry, I would be all for it "reaching out into the community", but in the case of Solid Rock, it is better that they keep their hands off of the community, lest they do more damage and bring more shame to the gospel of the Christ.

According to the Book of Enoch, the watchers were sent to the earth to teach mankind and ended up lusting after the women and fell. Demons have been roaming rampant since the beginning of time tempting man with the beauty of women. Without repentance and deliverance, the demons will lay dormant inside their victims, both pastors and laypeople alike. The men being spoken about on this blog sound very much like they are under a demonic influence because of a female! Wake up guys! You need deliverance!

Don't know all the story on Matthews, but I do know alot about Dufresne. Apparently Dufresne has alot of low class friends. He was involved in Scott Webb's church split/scandal - Scott's son David was youth pastor & molested a teenage girl. When the scandal finally broke, David & his wife & 2 little boys fled to the sanctuary of Ed Dufresne. The law finally caught up with David at Ed's church in CA. & took him back to Alabama to face charges. He is in jail, but only got 5 years & will be out soon. All along he & his father& Scott maintained innocence, although David testified in court that he was guilty. David's wife came back to Alabama for a little while, but recently moved to CA in preparation of David getting out of jail. Scott's mother has sold her house in AL & has moved to CA too. Scott trying to sell his home but hasn't sold yet. Scott just gave the church building back to the bank to avoid foreclosure & told his church that he was led of God to get out of debt & sold it to an "investment" company(see the spin). He also told the church God "promoted" him to a world wide ministry & he turned the church over to someone else. The Webb family can't stay in AL anymore because everyone is on to them. So they are all relocating to CA with the help of ED. Ed & Scott both believe anything they do is ok and never unrighteous. Their egos are amazing. Sounds like Matthews is just like them.

Wow! Absolutely disgusting although it shouldn't surprise me. Think about it, would these guys actually want friends with high morals and integrity? That would only make them feel guilty about all the nasty things they do and use God's name as a cover up. You are who you surround yourself with. I bet we could find dirt on every "Dr" and "pastor" in their circle. I wish the followers would google and do their homework first. I won't visit a church anymore without checking out the pastor's reputation online first.

Webb. Matthews. Powers. Rojas. Jacobs. Edwards. ALL from same cut, just like DuFresne. Use the word of God to live a lavish life style, womanize, and justify anything they do. Self serving, ego maniacs. So bad that so many innocent people get hurt by these lowlifes.

Typical of the DuFresne following. Each of these 'DRs.' go from congregation to congregation extolling the virtues of DuFresne and each other, all the while encouraging the 'sheep' to give more and more and to support the 'shepherds'. Seems the 'shepherds' sure do a good job watching out for the flock and protecting them. Powers, Ramos, Noel, Webb, Edwards, etc. etc. etc. all a bunch of self righteous scum.

Hello,
My name is Dr. Ed Dufresne, Pastor of World Harvest Church in Murrieta, CA. Pastor Bill Matthews has been a very good friend of mine for many years. Bill came to me a short while after his wife, Mary passed away and asked for my blessing to marry Lorena, Andrew, his sons ex-wife at the time. After he explained to me the situation I agreed to marry them at my church. And at the time I believed it was the right decision. Later finding out many undisclosed details, I regrettably did so give my blessing and marrying, Bill and Lorena. Had I known what I do know now I would have informed Pastor Bill not to marry Lorena. There was a time I personally have dealt with the difficulties of a similar situation, pertaining to myself. I believe the Devil tempts a Prophet of God more so than the average man. That being said I have an idea of the temptations he is facing. The decision to marry these two has caused me much grief in my congregation, as well as in my personal life. It's something I am responsible for and need to live with. I don't know all the circumstances of Bills recent charge, nor is it any of my business. I do want to point something out I believe. Pastor Bill was a good man at one time and I do believe that he still has the strength to be a man of God once again. He has obviously made some serious poor decisions through the past few years and I hope he will look to the Lord to help find his way once again. My prayers are with Pastor Bill and all the Matthews children.

Rev Edward G Palmer wrote:
I took the time to read "The Sociopath Next Door" by Martha Stout, Ph.D as recommended on this blog. I would personally recommend getting a copy and reading it for everyone who has been hurt by Dr. Bill Matthews' ministry and especially those hurt directly by Dr. Bill Matthews. It will help you understand the Bill Matthews you are dealing with.
The book accurately describes Dr. Bill Matthews. The most striking attribute aside from his wanting a total control over everyone's life is the total lack of remorselessness and the fact that as a sociopath, he has no conscious. In essence, Dr. Bill Matthews does what he wants to do regardless of the impact it has on anyone's life. The reason? He simply feels no true emotional connection to anyone that would cause him to think differently beyond what he personally wants. In his mind, he does not even recognize the pain that he has caused. That's why he will act "as if" nothing has ever happened AFTER he has caused a lot of damage. It is the ultimate evil to have no conscious about hurting people. That is precisely why he needs to be held accountable by the authorities for the crimes he has committed. It is the only way to stop him or slow him down and cause him to rethink his life. I write this note to reinforce the teaching on forgiveness I offered earlier on this blog. You cannot forgive someone who sins against you unless they repent. LUKE 17:3-4. Therefore, the solution to the issue of avoiding bitterness is to truly set the matter aside and allow God to deal with whatever Dr. Bill Matthews has done to you and your family. This is especially important when dealing with a sociopath. You need to simply step aside emotionally in life and give the matter to God, as it will be a literal cold day in hell before the sociopath attempts to make amends and say "I'm sorry, I was wrong."

This does not excuse us from warning others so keep blogging, but it is important NOT to carry a grudge. To carry a grudge allows $Bill to live rent free in your head. Better the other way around as you give the issue to God and unemotionally help the authorities deal with Bill's crimes.

Andy raised an important issue of talking to God yourself. In Stout's book, she explains that in testing it was found that 67% of the people would unquestionably follow someone they felt was in authority on any type of issue. When Bill teaches that God is telling him something, he reinforces his spiritual authority over people. However, this only works if they don't read Scripture.

#1 - God is NOT going to tell anyone something that goes against HIS Holy Word. To believe this means you are listening to a liar. God does not change. Malachi 3:6 "For I am the LORD, I do not change." There are countless examples of where Dr. Bill Matthews taught directly against Holy Scripture. The most evil example is the idea that God told him he could marry Lorena. It teaches directly against Lev 18:15.

#2 - One of the greatest gifts of our Lord Jesus Christ was the destruction of all the spiritual authority that stood between you and God HIMSELF. Not even Jesus stands between you and God Almighty. Jesus is a mediator IF you need one. He is not an intermediary like Moses was. So Andy is correct, you can go directly to God yourself and dialog with HIM.

IF Bill says "God told me this about you." -- You should say, "When HE tells me, I'll believe it!"

Jesus said: "At that time you won't need to ask me for anything. The truth is, you can go directly to the FATHER [GOD] and ask HIM, and HE will grant your request because you use my name. You haven't done this before. Ask, using my name, and you will receive, and you will have abundant joy." John 16:23-24 NLT

Now, if everyone still at Solid Rock Church understood what Andy, Mindy and Emily understand; that no one stands between you and God! Well, there would be no one left to support $Bill's evil.

I was trying to inject a little humor. I wasn't shunned, I merely lacked follow through and I was nerdy. The thing with high school girls is that once they realize they're hot...they walk with more confidence which makes all the boys crush even more. No reason to apologize by the way and beating yourself up isn't cool. Every guy in church liked you girls which must of been incredibly difficult to deal with. Chin up, enjoy your new lives and take care of your families. Peace, love, soul train!

I'm not sure who wrote this but I am so sorry I shunned you!! I was a very different person back then- at times snotty and self righteous. I feel like a friendlier and happier person now. I see that church breeding many self righteous people. It sounds like we have both changed for the better since leaving there. Thank you for the compliment about my family. My hubby and 3 kids are my favorite people in the world! I'm glad you are doing great too!
On another note- thank you to all of you on here that have showed your support for Andy, Mindy, and I. This has been an eye opening situation for me. I have grown as a person and I am very happy with the path my life has taken. God really can take something bad and turn it for good. In the death of my mom I was able to find the truth.

 Dr. Ed Dufresne

Say what you want and try to make excuses for you and Bill Matthews But Dr ED you know there are no circumstances that would justify a man marrying his son's wife while his son is still alive. Sex was the issue, Bill looked upon another man's wife (his son's)with lust and desire and he found ways to justify what he and she did. YOU, PROPHET that you are, was a part of their sin. Live with it and make excuses like you do to justify everything you and your select ones do. Your ex wife and her kids were hurt because you couldn't keep it in your pants, just like Matthews and Webb and countless others. Just a thought for you, keep in mind that as you keep getting older that attractive younger wife of yours can use your same words, scriptures, and excuses to find her someone to council her and take care of her needs, maybe she already has. Watch the way Trevor looks at her and she at him.

I might be able to answer my own question now. I watched the live-stream of a recent service. I don't remember if it was a Sunday or Wednesday night."Dr." Matthews was teaching on healing. Almost everything he said was based on experience, not scripture. One of the things he said was that his eyesight had been completely healed, but then he began to doubt the healing and the eyesight went bad again. That made me think: Do you suppose that Bill reads this forum and saw my post? Could that be the reason for the explanation?

Bill, if you are reading this forum, I want you to know that my prayer for you is that you would repent, really repent, of all your sin and come to Jesus for forgiveness and salvation. Your list of sins is long. You need to repent and come to Jesus.

The reasons that I suspect it to be fake: The location from which it was posted. I haven't gone back to look at it today, but as I remember it was somewhere local. Do you remember what number post it was? The other reason is that Matthews has not repented of anything and Dufresne still comes and does preaching at Solid Rock as though nothing is wrong. There is something wrong with anyone who knows the situation in that church and comes there and preaches as though nothing was wrong. IOW, Dufresne and Matthews are still in very close fellowship. The whole thing just looks suspicious to me. I don't know who or why anyone would fake it, but I have doubts that it was Dufresne who wrote it. I know that I could be wrong, but it just doesn't seem like something that he would do

Yes, he did do the marriage and that is disgusting. He needs to repent, really repent. IMO, that repentance would include getting out of the ministry.

I do not trust Dufresne or any preacher that says, "Give money to my ministry and God will give money to you". There is no greater conflict of interest. Both Dufresne and Matthews need to repent of that abomination. Actually, every preacher that comes to Solid Rock needs to repent of that.

This is the bio from Ed's own website. Nothing in here mentioning education:

Dr. Ed Dufresne is a bold and compassionate minister with over 47 years in the ministry. In 1971, God put a tangible healing anointing in Dr. Dufresne's right hand, and since then he has traveled over 11 million air miles carrying that healing anointing to this generation.

In 1999, Dr. Ed Dufresne had a vision of heaven, and at that time God gave him an endowment to kill cancer. Since then, there have been an increased number of dramatic healings from cancer recorded.

It has been said of Dr. Dufresne that he has a unique ability to draw the anointings and gifts out of ministers. His Campmeetings and Conferences draw ministers from around the globe who desire to receive impartations through this man of God whose ministry is earmarked by the moving of the Holy Spirit.

Dr. Dufresne's heavenly assignment has been enlarged in this decade to go to the nations. With a heart for the harvest, Dr. Dufresne travels extensively encouraging the Body of Christ to get ready for the last days move of the Holy Spirit, which will usher in the harvest and mark the return of the Lord!

One of the things these "pastors" in this club do is bestow honorary doctorate degrees on each other. I suppose if you have been around for a while, have a decent size church, a few grey hairs, and possibly kick enough money up to the leadership you get your degree.

In doing some reading Independent Fundamentalist Baptists (IFB), another group that could be considered a cult, do the same thing with awarding these phony degrees.

The IFB are very legalistic, King James only, soul winning, tradition oriented fundamentalists. The specific details might be different but the dynamics are similar to what we see with churches like Solid Rock. Blame the victim, it is the hidden sin in your life that is the problem, sex scandals, don't question your pastor, appearance is what is important, and leadership seems to be above the rules that they impose on everyone else.

I agree, I think anyone that survived such a thing should be praising God for their safety. In spite of 'false prophets' such as the Drs. Matthews, DuFresne, and the like, God is alive and well and protecting his people. These self righteous self serving egomaniacs have done so much harm and turned so many people against the churches. Hope Dr Bill and Lorena are enjoying the bed they made for themselves. Dr Bill most likely is enjoying several 'beds' he has made for himself.

 I obviously have no way of knowing whether you are referring to me or my sister, Emily, but I can say with absolute certainty neither one of us would ever ignore someone on purpose the way you are saying one of us did. Believe me, we get this kind of treatment on a regular basis from our own family members and people we used to call friends. It isn't the kind of hurt we would want to inflict on another person. And it wouldn't matter to either of us if you were still attending solid rock or not. So, you can choose to believe me, or hold a grudge. Like I said earlier, I would hope you could extend some grace and mercy our way. And, if you have my contact information, give me a call and we can have a nice conversation.

Thanks for the humor, "McNerdy pants"! I'm super happy for you that Emily's shunning motivated you to get hot! Congrats! Lol. Also, thanks for the reassurance that most people realize Bill (who is no longer my father, by his own choice) is bat- cray cray! I think you are right about the "rebellious" ones, too. My theory is that we weren't rebellious, really. We just thought for ourselves, and they didn't like that. Sometimes I like to imagine what my lost siblings would be like if they came over to this side. Thoughts?

These so called 'Word' preachers have a word for sure. The word greed. Just like Dr Bill, this preacher used the 'Word' to steal and deceive. Drs Powers, DuFresne, Matthews, Jacobs, Rojas, Silvas, etc. are full of the 'Word' but the word they are full of is Bulls@.at.

I'm not sure who wrote this but I am so sorry I shunned you!! I was a very different person back then- at times snotty and self righteous. I feel like a friendlier and happier person now. I see that church breeding many self righteous people. It sounds like we have both changed for the better since leaving there. Thank you for the compliment about my family. My hubby and 3 kids are my favorite people in the world! I'm glad you are doing great too!

On another note- thank you to all of you on here that have showed your support for Andy, Mindy, and I. This has been an eye opening situation for me. I have grown as a person and I am very happy with the path my life has taken. God really can take something bad and turn it for good. In the death of my mom I was able to find the truth.

Don't be afraid to voice your opinions today, even if you suspect that they aren't what everyone is expecting to hear. It's important to speak your mind, and there's no need to worry about treading on anyone's toes or sounding outrageous because that isn't very likely at all. If you're talking to someone, your conversation may take an unconventional turn that you weren't expecting.

moral issue by the Law of man and the Law of God. God is love you don't hurt people especially your own family. That little girl is growing up into a lie instead of calling him grandfather? Is actually herDad!LIES! What about the pain of Andy. God is in charged and he will judge for those who did wrong.

Dear Andy I am very surprised of this news that happen in your family. You have lost a daughter. I hope you get it back soon! I am sorry this type of actions came for your own father. Like you said God is in control! You have to forgive your father to get peace in your heart nor is actions were wrong he always will be your father. God is the best judge in this matter. Keep strong don't loose the faith things will get better for you. Since last week I found out about this no longer attend this church. My prayers are to you Andy don't allow your heart to get harder. I know I am not in your position. I cannot judge your father I am not perfect human being. But I am a mother too and love them dearly and I will never hurt them the way your father did.Hope you get Natalia back with you were she belongs to you. My best wishes God is with you.

I am the son that was married to Lorena and I will never hide from my accusers or talk behind someone's back, I would be more than happy to have a one on one public discussion of any events that transpired! I can assure you there has been zero illegal drug use for 13 years, and there was never physical abuse toward Lorena, the bible says the devil is the accuser of the brethren. I know God and I know he is in control. Although I am sad half my family will no longer speak with me, I know God can turn it around for good. I am not bitter or mad, but I look forward to the day truth is revealed. No man is perfect only God, but a real man can stand up and admit his wrongs and accept the consequences, a coward will hide and lie and deceive and cover up to the end!

Hope all is well with Andy and ssters. Seems several other 'DRs' have done similiar things and more being exposed now. Dr Ed is the example these socalled preachers are following. Dr Apostle Jimmy Powers is just another control freak egomaniac selfserving preacher who has divided his family. Dr Bill will be providing services to other female followers soon if he is not already. Lorena must know. Don't understand how she can look at herself in the mirror much less show her face at church or anywhere else.

Alejandra, you said: "Since last week I found out about this no longer attend this church". Are you saying that you were attending there for awhile, without knowing that "Dr." Bill was married to his daughter-in-law and stole her from his son? That makes me wonder: Is it not common knowledge to the attenders of that "church" that Bill Matthews married his daughter-in law?

I have sometimes wondered about that. It seems that it would have to be one of these two things: Either the members don't know, or they have accepted some distorted spin that Bill has put on the truth that he is a reprobate who has violated several scriptures.

Violated several scriptures and probably violated several females. He is a snake oil salesman. Many folks believe him and think he is ok in marrying his son's wife, even having her in his house while his wife lay dieing and Lorena was still married to Andy. Who really believes nothing was happening with Lorena then? He will pay one day.

I watched a few webcasts of the services recently from Solid Rock. It seems pretty dead and the energy level isn't what it used to be. It seemed like even Dr Ed wasn't able to fire them up anymore. Attendance is probably down a little from what a person can tell by the livefeed. It also sounds like the financial situation is pretty tight.

Maybe that place is finally nearing the end of the line.

Did you attempt to speak or acknowledge this 'daughter of Matthews'? Or did you ignore and shun her? If you didn't make any attempt, how do you know she even saw you? Or maybe she felt the same way you did and thought you were shunning her. Goes both ways you know. Who made the rule that the other person had to speak first, you? Feelings are easily hurt and so often because of mistakes or wrong assumptions which this seems to be. Or maybe you are just a 'believer' who wants to criticize and condemn this 'daughter of Matthews' because you support the 'DR' and his antics of stealing from an elderly lady as well as 'taking' his son's wife even while his own wife laid dying.

Don't let it bother you Mindy. If this 'believer' didn't attempt to speak to you or even acknowledge you then the 'believer' is guilty of actually what you are being accused of. Seems this is just someone who wants to point fingers and accusations against a 'daughter of Matthews'. Possibly could this just be another of the Dr's followers who wants to make it appear bad for you, Andy, and anyone else who doesn't support Dr Bill.

Of course I tried to get her attention but it was apparent she wanted nothing to do with it. I'm not going to keep defending myself who knows "maybe she was busy"? Its possible. Many feelings for all of us have been hurt multiple times. I just choose to ALWAYS try my best to walk in love but if ppl want nothing to do with me even though it hurts b/c I have done nothing wrong I will respect that the best I can.

Unbelievable I think your reading too much into it..You have to remember its the Holidays and people have alot on their minds...Heck I can be in a store and have someone wave and yell at me and I dont see or hear them because im concentrating or thinking about something else..Sometimes the other person has to come right up to me and say something to me.. I think you need to cut Mindy some slack..

If you are trying to walk in LOVE you would not be attacking someone just because they did not run over to you and kiss your butt. You sound like a real follower of Dr Bill. Attack his children and anyone else that does not adhere to his control. Who knows, maybe you are assisting Lorena in taking care of the Dr.

I obviously have no way of knowing whether you are referring to me or my sister, Emily, but I can say with absolute certainty neither one of us would ever ignore someone on purpose the way you are saying one of us did. Believe me, we get this kind of treatment on a regular basis from our own family members and people we used to call friends. It isn't the kind of hurt we would want to inflict on another person. And it wouldn't matter to either of us if you were still attending solid rock or not. So, you can choose to believe me, or hold a grudge. Like I said earlier, I would hope you could extend some grace and mercy our way. And, if you have my contact information, give me a call and we can have a nice conversation.

After all we have been through I find it real difficult to get on someone because they did not make eye contact or talk to someone else. It is probably a reaction in our sub-conscience, and not intentional at all. We have all had too much judgement heaped on us and are leery of more.

“ World Harvest Church wrote:

Hello,
My name is Dr. Ed Dufresne, Pastor of World Harvest Church in Murrieta, CA. Pastor Bill Matthews has been a very good friend of mine for many years. Bill came to me a short while after his wife, Mary passed away and asked for my blessing to marry Lorena, Andrew, his sons ex-wife at the time. After he explained to me the situation I agreed to marry them at my church. And at the time I believed it was the right decision. Later finding out many undisclosed details, I regrettably did so give my blessing and marrying, Bill and Lorena. Had I known what I do know now I would have informed Pastor Bill not to marry Lorena. There was a time I personally have dealt with the difficulties of a similar situation, pertaining to myself. I believe the Devil tempts a Prophet of God more so than the average man. That being said I have an idea of the temptations he is facing. The decision to marry these two has caused me much grief in my congregation, as well as in my personal life. It's something I am responsible for and need to live with. I don't know all the circumstances of Bills recent charge, nor is it any of my business. I do want to point something out I believe. Pastor Bill was a good man at one time and I do believe that he still has the strength to be a man of God once again. He has obviously made some serious poor decisions through the past few years and I hope he will look to the Lord to help find his way once again. My prayers are with Pastor Bill and all the Matthews children.
Dr. Ed Dufresne

DuFresne states 'I don't know all the circumstances of Bills recent charge, nor is it any of my business.' but should it not be some of his business if he is going to continue to support him and proclaim what a great 'man of God' he is as he (Dufresne) did recently with his 'Special Serices' at Matthews' church? It is about the money each of these Drs. can get from the blind followers as they roam from church to church. DuFresne and then another of DuFresne's followers, Ricky Edwards was at the Matthews church just a couple of months ago.

Here are the fruits of a Matthews style church on display for the world to see:

Her gleefulness and complete lack of empathy for the people that were killed are just sickening.

Don't know all the story on Matthews, but I do know alot about Dufresne. Apparently Dufresne has alot of low class friends. He was involved in Scott Webb's church split/scandal - Scott's son David was youth pastor & molested a teenage girl. When the scandal finally broke, David & his wife & 2 little boys fled to the sanctuary of Ed Dufresne. The law finally caught up with David at Ed's church in CA. & took him back to Alabama to face charges. He is in jail, but only got 5 years & will be out soon. All along he & his father& Scott maintained innocence, although David testified in court that he was guilty. David's wife came back to Alabama for a little while, but recently moved to CA in preparation of David getting out of jail. Scott's mother has sold her house in AL & has moved to CA too. Scott trying to sell his home but hasn't sold yet. Scott just gave the church building back to the bank to avoid foreclosure & told his church that he was led of God to get out of debt & sold it to an "investment" company(see the spin). He also told the church God "promoted" him to a world wide ministry & he turned the church over to someone else. The Webb family can't stay in AL anymore because everyone is on to them. So they are all relocating to CA with the help of ED. Ed & Scott both believe anything they do is ok and never unrighteous. Their egos are amazing. Sounds like Matthews is just like them.

Wow! Absolutely disgusting although it shouldn't surprise me. Think about it, would these guys actually want friends with high morals and integrity? That would only make them feel guilty about all the nasty things they do and use God's name as a cover up. You are who you surround yourself with. I bet we could find dirt on every "Dr" and "pastor" in their circle. I wish the followers would google and do their homework first. I won't visit a church anymore without checking out the pastor's reputation online first.

Webb. Matthews. Powers. Rojas. Jacobs. Edwards. ALL from same cut, just like DuFresne. Use the word of God to live a lavish life style, womanize, and justify anything they do. Self serving, ego maniacs. So bad that so many innocent people get hurt by these lowlifes.

Typical of the DuFresne following. Each of these 'DRs.' go from congregation to congregation extolling the virtues of DuFresne and each other, all the while encouraging the 'sheep' to give more and more and to support the 'shepherds'. Seems the 'shepherds' sure do a good job watching out for the flock and protecting them. Powers, Ramos, Noel, Webb, Edwards, etc. etc. etc. all a bunch of self righteous scum.

 Hello,
 My name is Dr. Ed Dufresne, Pastor of World Harvest Church in Murrieta, CA. Pastor Bill Matthews has been a very good friend of mine for many years. Bill came to me a short while after his wife, Mary passed away and asked for my blessing to marry Lorena, Andrew, his sons ex-wife at the time. After he explained to me the situation I agreed to marry them at my church. And at the time I believed it was the right decision. Later finding out many undisclosed details, I regrettably did so give my blessing and marrying, Bill and Lorena. Had I known what I do know now I would have informed Pastor Bill not to marry Lorena. There was a time I personally have dealt with the difficulties of a similar situation, pertaining to myself. I believe the Devil tempts a Prophet of God more so than the average man. That being said I have an idea of the temptations he is facing. The decision to marry these two has caused me much grief in my congregation, as well as in my personal life. It's something I am responsible for and need to live with. I don't know all the circumstances of Bills recent charge, nor is it any of my business. I do want to point something out I believe. Pastor Bill was a good man at one time and I do believe that he still has the strength to be a man of God once again. He has obviously made some serious poor decisions through the past few years and I hope he will look to the Lord to help find his way once again. My prayers are with Pastor Bill and all the Matthews children.

“ Rev Edward G Palmer wrote:
 I took the time to read "The Sociopath Next Door" by Martha Stout, Ph.D as recommended on this blog. I would personally recommend getting a copy and reading it for everyone who has been hurt by Dr. Bill Matthews' ministry and especially those hurt directly by Dr. Bill Matthews. It will help you understand the Bill Matthews you are dealing with.
 The book accurately describes Dr. Bill Matthews. The most striking attribute aside from his wanting a total control over everyone's life is the total lack of remorselessness and the fact that as a sociopath, he has no conscious. In essence, Dr. Bill Matthews does what he wants to do regardless of the impact it has on anyone's life. The reason? He simply feels no true emotional connection to anyone that would cause him to think differently beyond what he personally wants. In his mind, he does not even recognize the pain that he has caused. That's why he will act "as if" nothing has ever happened AFTER he has caused a lot of damage. It is the ultimate evil to have no conscious about hurting people. That is precisely why he needs to be held accountable by the authorities for the crimes he has committed. It is the only way to stop him or slow him down and cause him to rethink his life. I write this note to reinforce the teaching on forgiveness I offered earlier on this blog. You cannot forgive someone who sins against you unless they repent. LUKE 17:3-4. Therefore, the solution to the issue of avoiding bitterness is to truly set the matter aside and allow God to deal with whatever Dr. Bill Matthews has done to you and your family. This is especially important when dealing with a sociopath. You need to simply step aside emotionally in life and give the matter to God, as it will be a literal cold day in hell before the sociopath attempts to make amends and say "I'm sorry, I was wrong."

This does not excuse us from warning others so keep blogging, but it is important NOT to carry a grudge. To carry a grudge allows $Bill to live rent free in your head. Better the other way around as you give the issue to God and unemotionally help the authorities deal with Bill's crimes.

Andy raised an important issue of talking to God yourself. In Stout's book, she explains that in testing it was found that 67% of the people would unquestionably follow someone they felt was in authority on any type of issue. When Bill teaches that God is telling him something, he reinforces his spiritual authority over people. However, this only works if they don't read Scripture.

#1 - God is NOT going to tell anyone something that goes against HIS Holy Word. To believe this means you are listening to a liar. God does not change. Malachi 3:6 "For I am the LORD, I do not change." There are countless examples of where Dr. Bill Matthews taught directly against Holy Scripture. The most evil example is the idea that God told him he could marry Lorena. It teaches directly against Lev 18:15.

#2 - One of the greatest gifts of our Lord Jesus Christ was the destruction of all the spiritual authority that stood between you and God HIMSELF. Not even Jesus stands between you and God Almighty. Jesus is a mediator IF you need one. He is not an intermediary like Moses was. So Andy is correct, you can go directly to God yourself and dialog with HIM.

IF Bill says "God told me this about you." -- You should say, "When HE tells me, I'll believe it!"

Jesus said: "At that time you won't need to ask me for anything. The truth is, you can go directly to the FATHER [GOD] and ask HIM, and HE will grant your request because you use my name. You haven't done this before. Ask, using my name, and you will receive, and you will have abundant joy." John 16:23-24 NLT

Now, if everyone still at Solid Rock Church understood what Andy, Mindy and Emily understand; that no one stands between you and God! Well, there would be no one left to support $Bill's evil.

I was trying to inject a little humor. I wasn't shunned, I merely lacked follow through and I was nerdy. The thing with high school girls is that once they realize they're hot...they walk with more confidence which makes all the boys crush even more. No reason to apologize by the way and beating yourself up isn't cool. Every guy in church liked you girls which must of been incredibly difficult to deal with. Chin up, enjoy your new lives and take care of your families. Peace, love, soul train!

I'm not sure who wrote this but I am so sorry I shunned you!! I was a very different person back then- at times snotty and self righteous. I feel like a friendlier and happier person now. I see that church breeding many self righteous people. It sounds like we have both changed for the better since leaving there. Thank you for the compliment about my family. My hubby and 3 kids are my favorite people in the world! I'm glad you are doing great too!
On another note- thank you to all of you on here that have showed your support for Andy, Mindy, and I. This has been an eye opening situation for me. I have grown as a person and I am very happy with the path my life has taken. God really can take something bad and turn it for good. In the death of my mom I was able to find the truth.

Say what you want and try to make excuses for you and Bill Matthews But Dr ED you know there are no circumstances that would justify a man marrying his son's wife while his son is still alive. Sex was the issue, Bill looked upon another man's wife (his son's)with lust and desire and he found ways to justify what he and she did. YOU, PROPHET that you are, was a part of their sin. Live with it and make excuses like you do to justify everything you and your select ones do. Your ex wife and her kids were hurt because you couldn't keep it in your pants, just like Matthews and Webb and countless others. Just a thought for you, keep in mind that as you keep getting older that attractive younger wife of yours can use your same words, scriptures, and excuses to find her someone to council her and take care of her needs, maybe she already has. Watch the way Trevor looks at her and she at him.

I might be able to answer my own question now. I watched the live-stream of a recent service. I don't remember if it was a Sunday or Wednesday night."Dr." Matthews was teaching on healing. Almost everything he said was based on experience, not scripture. One of the things he said was that his eyesight had been completely healed, but then he began to doubt the healing and the eyesight went bad again. That made me think: Do you suppose that Bill reads this forum and saw my post? Could that be the reason for the explanation?

Bill, if you are reading this forum, I want you to know that my prayer for you is that you would repent, really repent, of all your sin and come to Jesus for forgiveness and salvation. Your list of sins is long. You need to repent and come to Jesus.

The reasons that I suspect it to be fake: The location from which it was posted. I haven't gone back to look at it today, but as I remember it was somewhere local. Do you remember what number post it was? The other reason is that Matthews has not repented of anything and Dufresne still comes and does preaching at Solid Rock as though nothing is wrong. There is something wrong with anyone who knows the situation in that church and comes there and preaches as though nothing was wrong. IOW, Dufresne and Matthews are still in very close fellowship. The whole thing just looks suspicious to me. I don't know who or why anyone would fake it, but I have doubts that it was Dufresne who wrote it. I know that I could be wrong, but it just doesn't seem like something that he would do

Yes, he did do the marriage and that is disgusting. He needs to repent, really repent. IMO, that repentance would include getting out of the ministry.

I do not trust Dufresne or any preacher that says, "Give money to my ministry and God will give money to you". There is no greater conflict of interest. Both Dufresne and Matthews need to repent of that abomination. Actually, every preacher that comes to Solid Rock needs to repent of that.

This is the bio from Ed's own website. Nothing in here mentioning education:

Dr. Ed Dufresne is a bold and compassionate minister with over 47 years in the ministry. In 1971, God put a tangible healing anointing in Dr. Dufresne's right hand, and since then he has traveled over 11 million air miles carrying that healing anointing to this generation.

In 1999, Dr. Ed Dufresne had a vision of heaven, and at that time God gave him an endowment to kill cancer. Since then, there have been an increased number of dramatic healings from cancer recorded.

It has been said of Dr. Dufresne that he has a unique ability to draw the anointings and gifts out of ministers. His Campmeetings and Conferences draw ministers from around the globe who desire to receive impartations through this man of God whose ministry is earmarked by the moving of the Holy Spirit.

Dr. Dufresne's heavenly assignment has been enlarged in this decade to go to the nations. With a heart for the harvest, Dr. Dufresne travels extensively encouraging the Body of Christ to get ready for the last days move of the Holy Spirit, which will usher in the harvest and mark the return of the Lord!

One of the things these "pastors" in this club do is bestow honorary doctorate degrees on each other. I suppose if you have been around for a while, have a decent size church, a few grey hairs, and possibly kick enough money up to the leadership you get your degree.

In doing some reading Independent Fundamentalist Baptists (IFB), another group that could be considered a cult, do the same thing with awarding these phony degrees.

The IFB are very legalistic, King James only, soul winning, tradition oriented fundamentalists. The specific details might be different but the dynamics are similar to what we see with churches like Solid Rock. Blame the victim, it is the hidden sin in your life that is the problem, sex scandals, don't question your pastor, appearance is what is important, and leadership seems to be above the rules that they impose on everyone else.

I agree, I think anyone that survived such a thing should be praising God for their safety. In spite of 'false prophets' such as the Drs. Matthews, DuFresne, and the like, God is alive and well and protecting his people. These self righteous self serving egomaniacs have done so much harm and turned so many people against the churches. Hope Dr Bill and Lorena are enjoying the bed they made for themselves. Dr Bill most likely is enjoying several 'beds' he has made for himself.

Thanks for the humor, "McNerdy pants"! I'm super happy for you that Emily's shunning motivated you to get hot! Congrats! Lol. Also, thanks for the reassurance that most people realize Bill (who is no longer my father, by his own choice) is bat- cray cray! I think you are right about the "rebellious" ones, too. My theory is that we weren't rebellious, really. We just thought for ourselves, and they didn't like that. These so called 'Word' preachers have a word for sure. The word greed. Just like Dr Bill, this preacher used the 'Word' to steal and deceive. Drs Powers, DuFresne, Matthews, Jacobs, Rojas, Silvas, etc. are full of the 'Word' but the word they are full of is Bulls@t.

I'm not sure who wrote this but I am so sorry I shunned you!! I was a very different person back then- at times snotty and self righteous. I feel like a friendlier and happier person now. I see that church breeding many self righteous people. It sounds like we have both changed for the better since leaving there. Thank you for the compliment about my family. My hubby and 3 kids are my favorite people in the world! I'm glad you are doing great too!

On another note- thank you to all of you on here that have showed your support for Andy, Mindy, and I. This has been an eye opening situation for me. I have grown as a person and I am very happy with the path my life has taken. God really can take something bad and turn it for good. In the death of my mom I was able to find the truth.

Funny Ed and Bill have the same habit of not paying their staff. The sad part for both of them is the majority of their staff is family. All they care about is themselves and maintaining their "prosperous" image, while all the while they are crumbling from the inside.

Yeah, I got the impression Dr Ed has and is experiencing some financial problems as well as 'family' problems too. I find it funny, maybe the lifestyle and lies they have been living is catching up yo them all.

Dear Andy I am very surprised of this news that happen in your family. You have lost a daughter. I hope you get it back soon! I am sorry this type of actions came for your own father. Like you said God is in control! You have to forgive your father to get peace in your heart nor is actions were wrong he always will be your father. God is the best judge in this matter. Keep strong don't loose the faith things will get better for you. Since last week I found out about this no longer attend this church. My prayers are to you Andy don't allow your heart to get harder. I know I am not in your position. I cannot judge your father I am not perfect human being. But I am a mother too and love them dearly and I will never hurt them the way your father did.Hope you get Natalia back with you were she belongs to you. My best wishes God is with you.

I am the son that was married to Lorena and I will never hide from my accusers or talk behind someone's back, I would be more than happy to have a one on one public discussion of any events that transpired! I can assure you there has been zero illegal drug use for 13 years, and there was never physical abuse toward Lorena, the bible says the devil is the accuser of the brethren. I know God and I know he is in control. Although I am sad half my family will no longer speak with me, I know God can turn it around for good. I am not bitter or mad, but I look forward to the day truth is revealed. No man is perfect only God, but a real man can stand up and admit his wrongs and accept the consequences, a coward will hide and lie and deceive and cover up to the end!

Hope all is well with Andy and ssters. Seems several other 'DRs' have done similiar things and more being exposed now. Dr Ed is the example these socalled preachers are following. Dr Apostle Jimmy Powers is just another control freak egomaniac selfserving preacher who has divided his family. Dr Bill will be providing services to other female followers soon if he is not already. Lorena must know. Don't understand how she can look at herself in the mirror much less show her face at church or anywhere else.

Alejandra, you said: "Since last week I found out about this no longer attend this church". Are you saying that you were attending there for awhile, without knowing that "Dr." Bill was married to his daughter-in-law and stole her from his son? That makes me wonder: Is it not common knowledge to the attenders of that "church" that Bill Matthews married his daughter-in law?

I have sometimes wondered about that. It seems that it would have to be one of these two things: Either the members don't know, or they have accepted some distorted spin that Bill has put on the truth that he is a reprobate who has violated several scriptures.

Violated several scriptures and probably violated several females. He is a snake oil salesman. Many folks believe him and think he is ok in marrying his son's wife, even having her in his house while his wife lay dieing and Lorena was still married to Andy. Who really believes nothing was happening with Lorena then? He will pay one day.

I watched a few webcasts of the services recently from Solid Rock. It seems pretty dead and the energy level isn't what it used to be. It seemed like even Dr Ed wasn't able to fire them up anymore. Attendance is probably down a little from what a person can tell by the livefeed. It also sounds like the financial situation is pretty tight.

Maybe that place is finally nearing the end of the line.

It's so sad how much their deceitful preaching affects others. Anybody is allowed to divorce, marry, cheat, steal...anything they say God told them to do! Lost my entire family because of them. Now, granted...my life is so much better now with all the BS out of my life, but the loss of my children...I'll never forgive that! To justify members cheating on their spouses, just to keep the dwindling tithe and seed coming in? Separating families to get the ones who question the goings on there? Bad Bill could sleep with his own daughters and nobody would say anything about it! Wow...what a bunch of deceived sheep!

Hmmm, so Billy Bob Matthews says closing costs for refinancing would be about $25,000. For years he has been telling the deceived there that the "mortgage" on the church is about $200,000 give or take a few thousand. He has taken many 'offerings'(usually asking each family for $1000) over the years to help "pay down the mortgage" Funny but not, the mortgage amount NEVER goes down. And $25,000 to refinance a $200,000 mortgage?? There'll be some pocket change there left over for Billy Bob no doubt. No one except Billy Bob even knows IF there is a 'mortgage'. The truth is never told at SRC...It's just something sociopaths never do

Of course God tells them to do these things. Steal his son's wife, sleeping with her while his wife is in the next room dying. Of course that is from God. But not the God I serve, it is from the self righteous God in the head of these egotistical self righteous charlatons. Hopefully Bill's daughters have more moral character than he does, but would not be surprised if he did not attempt to seduce them as well.

I don't know about that, but I do know that he was very cruel to those children. The three oldest for sure. The saddest thing was that he made Mary spank them,very hard! She was "with" him in this, but it did break her heart many times! I was forced into the same behavior with my own children, due in large part to Bill's teaching. The one difference was that my ex (never ever spanked as a child)RARELY spanked the kids, only insisted that I did. Bill, however, seemed to relish hurting those children! Creepy! I have to wonder if there is some degree of Stockholm Syndrome going on with the three older children. How much will Slick Willie get by with? Again, Creepy!!!!

Hello. I have known the Hoogenbooms for many years. My concern is that Rick and Jim Hoogenboom now live together on the east side of Tucson. They work together all day long, and live together ,too. They have kidnapped Mrs. Franz's child, Joshua, not letting his mother see him. They are teaching Joshua to hate his mother and to disown her. Apparently, Rick still has all of Darlene Franz's things, furniture, etc, and Jim Hoogenboom and Rick use all of her things to furnish and decorate the bachelor pad they live in. They sure party there and have a good share of sex with some real floozies. Becky and Jim have been separated for around 3 years now. It is rumoured that Becky is divorcing Jim.

How did Hoogenboom close down CCC? What were the final days/weeks like? Was there a final scandal that sent members rushing for the door or was it a gradual death?

When I quit attending he was collecting money to put up a metal building towards the back of the parking lot. I smelled something very fishy right there and it wasn't just the rotten fish grease smell in the rafters. I suspected it would never be built and so did others but nobody would ever say anything out loud....people tended to blow off obvious unrighteousness in that place, they'd just shrug their shoulders and I'd end up looking like a divisive jerk for opening my mouth. But evidently others finally did catch on, thank God. I learned a lesson though; I now know I was disobeying God by continuing attendance there after I saw many things that weren't right, things that just shouldn't be happening in a church where Jesus is Lord; and I paid a price for staying as long as I did. Many times I left after a service feeling more burdened and troubled than I did coming in. After I finally left and was told about Jim's swinging Elk River days I understood finally why that church never seemed blessed by God; because Jim himself wasn't under God's direction to pastor anymore. Instead it was a continual struggle in the flesh to keep it going. The truly righteous people tended to stay only for a while.

tricky. It would be very easy to get drawn into the drama that they're trying to create, but do your best not to let this happen and concentrate instead on the emotions that lie behind this smokescreen that they've created. What's really going on with them?

Get your Horoscope »

Seems so many of these 'men of God' have these 'callings' but there is always such a struggle in the flesh to keep it going. Of course the real burden is placed on those that are deceived and give until they have nothing else to give, some even giving all they have in retirement for their older years. Then there is no one but the government to take care of them cause they gave it all to these charlatons like Hogenboom, DuFresne, Matthews, etc. Been there, done that, don't have a shirt though...

How sick must a person be to stand up and preach in front of a large congregation that includes multiple women that you are sleeping with?

In the congregation there was Becky being the supportive pastor's wife. Also there are the 3 (maybe more?) women who you are seeing on the side. Sitting with their husbands and coming to church with their families. Then there are your daughters. All this while preaching the great power of God to overcome. Instead of fessing up and taking the cure, he ran off to Tucson(with a few obedient supporters?) and started another church.

There I was playing the part of the joyful Christian. When I left church I was on that "high" that felt so good. When it came time to be by myself things changed. Maybe part of it was coming down from that high. I judged myself for every action and every inaction. I should have done this when I had the chance, I shouldn't have done the other thing. Why doesn't God work in my life like the way Pastor Hoogenboom says he should? God seems to be working in the lives of others, why not me? There must be something wrong with me. I repented of every little hidden sin I could think of. I beat myself up mercilessly.

During this time I also learned to hold back in the presence of others. It wasn't everybody but there always seemed to be somebody around to jump down your throat if you said something that wasn't quite right. I was gripped by fear. I even saw the counseling pastor, George O'brien, during this time. He figuratively stuck a knife in my heart by violating one of the basic rules of counseling - confidentiality.

I will say that my years at ER AoG were the worst of my life and it took me many years to recover from. How many lives have been damaged by the Hoogenboom and Matthews over the years? There must be a lot of them.

This is a great reference site on Matthews' sick stuff that will hopefully never go away along with the site below. Both sites are a reminder of the evil within the church perpetrated by men of power and supported by unrighteous people seeking their share of power or status, which was doled out by the leader to systematically gain control over people. Yet, according to Jesus, there WILL be payback for all who have scattered God's sheep.

I recently watched a Solid Rock service via podcast. I think Matthews is getting worse. He was doing his usual teaching on the only things that he ever teaches: prosperity, healing and the "anointing". As usual, his teaching was not accurate to the Bible, but was all based on alleged experiences. As always, fund raising, was a big part of the message.

Like Hoogenboom, he is a disgrace and people like that don't care what anyone thinks or knows.

The sad thing is, no matter how clearly he might be exposed, there would still be people who would be willing to follow him, just like with Hoogenboom.

gentle readers,
while it may be true that he did remove money from his mother-in-law's account, i have no doubt that this was done at the direction of the lord through the intervention of the holy spirit. let us not judge this righteous man of god!

Yes, it is sad for his family. Hopefully, God will use it to work in their lives. Whether or not Dufresne was a believer, I don't know. I hope that he had a chance to repent on the way down.

It will not surprise me if Matthews somehow uses this to raise money.

There are two Rojas pastors. One in California and one in Texas i think. Which one are you referring to?

Curious, referring to the Rojas that identifies himself as the 'Holy Ghost' preacher. Little short mouthy runt. It is a sad event for the families of DuFresne and his pilot. And yes, Matthews and many others will attempt to use this as a means of raising more money for themselves.

@Elk River Mallard: Those are sound reasoning and I have never really given it much thought. I just took it that it was Dr Ed that posted it. I can't imagine why anyone would post as DuFresne but your reasons make sense. I saw Edwards and several others from DuFresne's group at Matthew's church like nothing ever happened. These so called ministers are in it for themselves. I agree that any minister that says "Give to my ministry and God will give to you" can not be trusted. Thanks for your insight.

I agree with everything you said, except for the last sentence. The corruption in that church is not for "the sake of the gospel". At best, it is distorted gospel in that church, not the true gospel.

Yah, I'm well aware that it's a distorted gospel. Just repeating something I heard there almost every time I had to sit and swallow BS. I forgive them for how they tore my life apart, only because I need peace...but I will never forget. Just glad I found out the truth. The thought of the damage being done to the children there, brings me to tears though.

I wrote this for a Facebook post and I think it appropriate for this forum, too:

Can you think of a greater conflict of interest than these two?: I think they are a tie. One is when a teenage boy says to his girlfriend, "If you really love me, you will prove your love". The other is from preachers, especially, but not only on TV, when they say: "Give to my ministry and God will give money to you". That would include people like Benny Hinn, Jesse Duplantis, Ken Copeland, Mike Murdock, INSP network and TBN. We have a church right here in Elk River that is known for this practice. There are many who do this. You can read about them in 2 Peter 1-3:

2 But there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who privily shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction.

2 And many shall follow their pernicious ways; by reason of whom the way of truth shall be evil spoken of.

3 And through covetousness shall they with feigned words make merchandise of you: whose judgment now of a long time lingereth not, and their damnation slumbereth not. "With covetousness shall they with feigned words make merchandise of you". That covetousness is clearly displayed in those asking, but is may also be in those giving, so they can get.

So, after all of Dr. Bill's apostasy and crimes against God, is his ministry doing well in Elk River or is it still slowly dying off? Speak up those of you who still attend this house of Satan. What do you know? Isn't it time to tell it all?

I live about a mile from that church, I see the comings and goings. A rough estimate of memebers or attenders, I would say to be about 20, including and mostly, family or members who have married into that "church", cult! Occasionally, I've noticed some new ppl, but they seem to be there long enough to get drained of any money they may

	have had, and then leave. I remember bill saying many times..."feed the sheep, milk the goats". And that's exactly what he does. Good job "billy" Im sure God is proud of you and all you have accomplished! NOT!!!!

He was talking about their refinancing of the building. He said that the closing cost for the refi would be $25,000. He suggested that each family chip in $100/month for three months, so they could raise enough to pay the closing costs. That would, of course, actually raise $30,000. He mentioned that and, as I remember, said that maybe some people would miss some payments, thus it would ensure enough cash for the refi.

A preacher who jumps in bed with his son's wife while his own wife and helpmate lies in the next bedroom dieing. And a wife who hops in bed with her husband's father Guess Bill was adding his 'personal touch' to Lorena during counseling and Lorena was just helping Bill with his needs. Sounds like rationale that DuFresne followers would use.

It's so sad how much their deceitful preaching affects others. Anybody is allowed to divorce, marry, cheat, steal...anything they say God told them to do! Lost my entire family because of them. Now, granted...my life is so much better now with all the BS out of my life, but the loss of my children...I'll never forgive that! To justify members cheating on their spouses, just to keep the dwindling tithe and seed coming in? Separating families to get the ones who question the goings on there? Bad Bill could sleep with his own daughters and nobody would say anything about it! Wow...what a bunch of deceived sheep!

Hmmm, so Billy Bob Matthews says closing costs for refinancing would be about $25,000. For years he has been telling the deceived there that the "mortgage" on the church is about $200,000 give or take a few thousand. He has taken many 'offerings'(usually asking each family for $1000) over the years to help "pay down the mortgage" Funny but not, the mortgage amount NEVER goes down. And $25,000 to refinance a $200,000 mortgage?? There'll be some pocket change there left over for Billy Bob no doubt. No one except Billy Bob even knows IF there is a 'mortgage'. The truth is never told at SRC...It's just something sociopaths never do

Of course God tells them to do these things. Steal his son's wife, sleeping with her while his wife is in the next room dying. Of course that is from God. But not the God I serve, it is from the self righteous God in the head of these egotistical self righteous charlatons. Hopefully Bill's daughters have more moral character than he does, but would not be surprised if he did not attempt to seduce them as well.

I don't know about that, but I do know that he was very cruel to those children. The three oldest for sure. The saddest thing was that he made Mary spank them,very hard! She was "with" him in this, but it did break her heart many times! I was forced into the same behavior with my own children, due in large part to Bill's teaching. The one difference was that my ex (never ever spanked as a child)RARELY spanked the kids, only insisted that I did. Bill, however, seemed to relish hurting those children! Creepy! I have to wonder if there is some degree of Stockholm Syndrome going on with the three older children. How much will Slick Willie get by with? Again, Creepy!!!!

Hello. I have known the Hoogenbooms for many years. My concern is that Rick and Jim Hoogenboom now live together on the east side of Tucson. They work together all day long, and live together ,too. They have kidnapped Mrs. Franz's child, Joshua, not letting his mother see him. They are teaching Joshua to hate his mother and to disown her. Apparently, Rick still has all of Darlene Franz's things, furniture, etc, and Jim Hoogenboom and Rick use all of her things to furnish and decorate the bachelor pad they live in. They sure party there and have a good share of sex with some real floozies. Becky and Jim have been separated for around 3 years now. It is rumoured that Becky is divorcing Jim.

How did Hoogenboom close down CCC? What were the final days/weeks like? Was there a final scandal that sent members rushing for the door or was it a gradual death?

When I quit attending he was collecting money to put up a metal building towards the back of the parking lot. I smelled something very fishy right there and it wasn't just the rotten fish grease smell in the rafters. I suspected it would never be built and so did others but nobody would ever say anything out loud....people tended to blow off obvious unrighteousness in that place, they'd just shrug their shoulders and I'd end up looking like a divisive jerk for opening my mouth. But evidently others finally did catch on, thank God. I learned a lesson though; I now know I was disobeying God by continuing attendance there after I saw many things that weren't right, things that just shouldn't be happening in a church where Jesus is Lord; and I paid a price for staying as long as I did. Many times I left after a service feeling more burdened and troubled than I did coming in. After I finally left and was told about Jim's swinging Elk River days I understood finally why that church never seemed blessed by God; because Jim himself wasn't under God's direction to pastor anymore. Instead it was a continual struggle in the flesh to keep it going. The truly righteous people tended to stay only for a while.

tricky. It would be very easy to get drawn into the drama that they're trying to create, but do your best not to let this happen and concentrate instead on the emotions that lie behind this smokescreen that they've created. What's really going on with them?

Seems so many of these 'men of God' have these 'callings' but there is always such a struggle in the flesh to keep it going. Of course the real burden is placed on those that are deceived and give until they have nothing else to give, some even giving all they have in retirement for their older years. Then there is no one but the government to take care of them cause they gave it all to these charlatons like Hogenboom, DuFresne, Matthews, etc. Been there, done that, don't have a shirt though...

How sick must a person be to stand up and preach in front of a large congregation that includes multiple women that you are sleeping with?

In the congregation there was Becky being the supportive pastor's wife. Also there are the 3 (maybe more?) women who you are seeing on the side. Sitting with their husbands and coming to church with their families. Then there are your daughters. All this while preaching the great power of God to overcome. Instead of fessing up and taking the cure, he ran off to Tucson(with a few obedient supporters?) and started another church.

There I was playing the part of the joyful Christian. When I left church I was on that "high" that felt so good. When it came time to be by myself things changed. Maybe part of it was coming down from that high. I judged myself for every action and every inaction. I should have done this when I had the chance, I shouldn't have done the other thing. Why doesn't God work in my life like the way Pastor Hoogenboom says he should? God seems to be working in the lives of others, why not me? There must be something wrong with me. I repented of every little hidden sin I could think of. I beat myself up mercilessly.

During this time I also learned to hold back in the presence of others. It wasn't everybody but there always seemed to be somebody around to jump down your throat if you said something that wasn't quite right. I was gripped by fear. I even saw the counseling pastor, George O'brien, during this time. He figuratively stuck a knife in my heart by violating one of the basic rules of counseling - confidentiality.

I will say that my years at ER AoG were the worst of my life and it took me many years to recover from. How many lives have been damaged by the Hoogenboom and Matthews over the years? There must be a lot of them.

This is a great reference site on Matthews' sick stuff that will hopefully never go away along with the site below. Both sites are a reminder of the evil within the church perpetrated by men of power and supported by unrighteous people seeking their share of power or status, which was doled out by the leader to systematically gain control over people. Yet, according to Jesus, there WILL be payback for all who have scattered God's sheep.

I recently watched a Solid Rock service via podcast. I think Matthews is getting worse. He was doing his usual teaching on the only things that he ever teaches: prosperity, healing and the "anointing". As usual, his teaching was not accurate to the Bible, but was all based on alleged experiences. As always, fund raising, was a big part of the message.

Like Hoogenboom, he is a disgrace and people like that don't care what anyone thinks or knows.

The sad thing is, no matter how clearly he might be exposed, there would still be people who would be willing to follow him, just like with Hoogenboom.

Yes, it is sad for his family. Hopefully, God will use it to work in their lives. Whether or not Dufresne was a believer, I don't know. I hope that he had a chance to repent on the way down.

It will not surprise me if Matthews somehow uses this to raise money.

Curious, referring to the Rojas that identifies himself as the 'Holy Ghost' preacher. Little short mouthy runt. It is a sad event for the families of DuFresne and his pilot. And yes, Matthews and many others will attempt to use this as a means of raising more money for themselves.

Hoogenboom has some sermon videos posted on Youtube again. They seem to come and go. Watched one for a few minutes, had some OK stuff and some made-up theology just like always. Can't tell if there's actually an audience in front of him. I don't understand why he keeps it up anymore when he should be making it big as a used-car salesman.

Maybe he's still dreaming of having his own TV station.

One of the reasons, is that it may help to educate people and protect them from this crap. I realize that many people are taken in and impossible to reach, but some may see the truth.

Another reason is Ephesians 5:11, which says: Do not participate in the unfruitful deeds of darkness, but instead even expose them;

I watched some of the webcast yesterday for the first time in a while. This is what I learned: The sermon was a whole lot of dad Hagin said this and Ed Dufresne said that. God delivered Bill Matthews from BMW's and Rolex watches. You have to give more this year than you did last year. If you spend some money on yourself and get a new boat, car, or home; you are walking away from God. In other words, you are not allowed to have a life. The singing (Rachael?) seems to be getting worse - it has become painful. There also seems to be a few less people in the congregation. There was also a "real special anointing" in both services.

I saw just a bit of it at the end. Matthews said that everyone should bring their checkbook to every service and give in every offering. I think that it is rare for them to have less than at least two offerings in each service.

Let me see if I can help clarify this a little. Starting with "doctor Bill Matthews". He married Lorena (andy's ex wife), Lorena has two brothers. Mario and Estuardo. Mario married "Doctor Bill Matthews" niece, Renee (His sister's daughter). Estuardo married Bill Jr.'s sister in law (his wife's sister by adoption). "Doctor Bill Matthews" nephew(his sister's son, also Renee's brother), Peter, married Heidi Smith. Heidi's brother, Ken, married Chelsea Matthews ("Doctor Bill Matthews" oldest daughter). That makes many of the children of these marriages cousins on both sides. It also means "Doctor Bill Matthews" sister has the same in laws by her daughter AND her brother.
Part of the reason for all this "inter marriage" is because the people in this group are taught it is not good to marry (or date) anyone from outside the group, it is even looked down upon to date someone from a different church. The group has become increasingly smaller, so the options are fewer and farther between. Most of their children also attend the school at the church, and sports are discouraged, so there are not many places left to meet other people.

May be even more closely related family counseling happening now if rumors are true. Of course they will be led by God to do whatever / whoever it is they are doing

Of course you have to buy the pastor an automobile. It's called a "love offering" and showing "honor" to the shephard that 'protects' the flock. Automobiles, Rolexes, vacations, etc. while the 'flock' struggles to put food on their own tables. That is the way it is done by these charlatons.

There are many of us who have been hurt by the "ministries" of Elk River Assembly/Solid Rock Church. My family and I are among those who were affected by the "ministries" of both Jim Hooganboom and Bill Mathews. There are many others who report that they have been abused and hurt by the leadership of that church. Since you are reading this, you may be among that crowd. When we left there, it took a while to find a good church, but we finally did. Many of you also are now in a good church, but some are in another abusive church and/or another church that teaches questionable doctrine. Some have abandoned church. I am concerned for those who are currently hurting and may be bitter. There are some who blame God. If you are among that group, I can understand that you have experienced a great deal of pain and disillusion. I notice that there was a poster who said something to the effect that he/she was going to demand some explaining from God at the judgement seat. First of all, when you stand in the presence of God, you are going to know much more than you know now. At that point, you will know better than to question or criticize God. Secondly, while it is true that you have suffered a great deal of pain, that is something that the book of 1 Peter tells us that we can expect. Jesus, Paul and James also told us that there will be suffering and trials in this life. We do not expect those trials and suffering to come at the hand of those who claim to be spiritual leaders, but it does happen. Paul experienced it too. Besides that, who of us can say that there is evidence that the leadership of that church is made up of people who are born-again? With all of that said, if you were hurt by that church, do not blame God, but allow it to be a trial that God has brought you through and out of. It is trials and tribulation that can bring us to a closer walk with God. I hope that you will consider what I am saying. Our trials in Elk River do not compare with the trials that Christians around the world are experiencing. Therefore, I hope that you will allow those trials to bring you closer to God and you will always want to be in a close walk with Him, no matter what.

Latest Elk River Paper contains the annual "Oh Oh Forgot to pay property Taxes" page. Anyone want to guess what church (SRC) forgot to pay their property taxes again??? This minister and church haven't missed a year! Maybe they could not scrape up the huge amount due in property taxes because the amount would cause a hardship?(Taxes due $252.05) -sigh.

Is Bill's business, Matthews Motors, still around?

I saw yesterday they were trying to raise $1600 to send Bill to Argentina. for a "missions" trip. I would imagine they can bring in a fair amount of cash on one of those deals. Ricky Powers was there earlier in the week and implied that Bill had money problems.

Powers is another charlatan who mooches off churches while living a lavish lifestyle. Jimmy Powers Ministries, DR Powers no less, is a scam. Like Dr Dollar Bill Matthews, he tries to control his children's lives, not just when they are young but when they become adults as well. Haven't heard of him 'taking' one of his daughter-in-laws yet but only a matter of time.

I watched some of the Wednesday night service and I have a couple of observations: The topic was mostly centered around healing. Dr. Matthews gave the impression that we can always be healed. I know that I have mentioned this before, but I couldn't help thinking, if Dr. M teaches that healing is a sure thing, why does he still have to wear glasses? With the thick "anointing" that was allegedly present, it doesn't make sense that his vision can't be cured, when he is telling everyone else that they can be healed.

Here is another thought: If everyone is always healed, why do so many come forward for healing so often? When a big crowd comes forward for healing that is one more reason to stay away from that place....I don't want to risk catching something from all of those sick people.

to be healed, you have to believe and have faith. that faith extendsw to giving all you have and believing you will be taken care of. So, you need to give more of what you have so you can be healed. Yes, a subtle way of saying give me more so I can live better.

DR Bill is ot 'healed' so he can be an example of even though you may not geet healing this time, keep believing (and giving) and you will get the healing. Just maybe after youhave nothing left or when you are put in your grave, then you are healed of all the sicknesses yyou may have on this earth.

Yep, I heard him say that too, but it seems that if his teaching is followed, he could just repent of his former doubts and re-do it, now that he claims that everyone can always be healed and that it is a sure thing if his formula is followed.

Yep, heard 'DR' Bill say that too. Of course he always has an excuse for everything to justify whatever he does. Just as God told him to take Lorena, even while Mary lay in her deathbed in the other bedroom. Mary gave all. What a shame she had to endure the emotional, as well as, the physical abuse of 'DR' Bill. Now her children must continue with the pain inflicted by this 'man of God'.

yep, can believe it. Would believe most anything about "Dr" Bill and this group except that he really cares for anyone but himself. Lorena must be proud.. Don't know how she can walk in that church or anywhere and hold her head up. Plus she has to know what Bill is doing during his 'counseling' session. After all, he 'counseled' her.

I am very shocked at what all is being said here. I listened to Dr. Dufresne when he was alive, met him and heard his preaching. I listen to his wife Nancy even now and his son Grant. Haven't any of you read the story about David and Saul? It is not a good idea to defame or attack the Lord's anointed and it never goes well for the person who does. I do not know the details of what you are talking about, but nothing that you have said has convinced me that Dr. Dufresne had all of the details and was completely and 100% aware of what went on in Dr. Matthew's church and that he knowingly went along with it. How do you know that he had all the facts? How do you know that he wasn't helping a friend find his way back to God or counseling him to do the right thing, trying to and imploring him to do what was right? What makes you so sure that Dr. Dufresne was knowingly a part of this whole thing? As a pastor, Dr. Dufresne is of course going to counsel anyone who needs Christian advice, and unless you were in the room, you have no idea what was said or why. The bible says, "Judge not, less ye be judged." I am not saying you are right. I am not saying you aren't. I am saying that I happen to know that Dr. Dufresne is the Lord's anointed and it is never a good idea to speak out against the Lord's anointed. Judging Dr. Dufresne is God's job, not ours. From what I knew of the man, he was a wonderful man of God. I refuse to believe anything else. You, of course can do what you'd like, but remember, you will answer for it as well, and unless you can be 100% sure, I wouldn't continue to say what you are saying. Plus, your words, even if they were true, serve only to discourage the body of Christ from living right, getting their lives right with God and listening to their own pastors. Be careful that in your attempt to expose others that you are not hurting innocent people and harming yourself. I would repent before it's too late, and let God expose whom he wishes.

Hahahaha... Yah, maybe you are right. Evil should not be brought into the lite so everyone can see what's happening. Pastors should be allowed to sin against their own sheep, without being held accountable. Not all, but most churches have become so corrupt.. I am saying that I happen to know that Dr. Dufresne is the Lord's anointed and it is never a good idea to speak out against the Lord's anointed. Judging Dr. Dufresne is God's job, not ours. From what I knew of the man, he was a wonderful man of God. I refuse to believe anything else. You, of course can do what you'd like, but remember, you will answer for it as well, and unless you can be 100% sure, I wouldn't continue to say what you are saying. Plus, your words, even if they were true, serve only to discourage the body of Christ from living right, getting their lives right with God and listening to their own pastors. Be careful that in your attempt to expose others that you are not hurting innocent people and harming yourself. I would repent before it's too late, and let God expose whom he wishes.

We cannot compare Matthews and Dufresne to David and Saul. Matthews and Dufresne have no special anointing. The New Testament tells us that all born-again believers have an anointing in 1 John 2:18-27. There is no special class with a special anointing. If Matthews and Dufresne were even born-again, they should have known better than to break up Bill's son's home and steal his wife. Their actions were and are reprehensible. Their lives and actions do no show evidence of being born-again. Ephesians 5:11 tells us: "Do not participate in the Dr.Jimmy is a Godly man and I agree. He doesn't preach for the money he does it for God. People have made mistakes in their life's but this man is truly in his calling and he blesses me. And about the son; that's between them anand God I'm sure the son is living and growing in his calling. And it always hurts to lose someone but God restores all in his time. GOD BLESS. Gossip doesn't salve anything. It only builds a bigger wall for God to break down and build restoration.

I am very shocked at what all is being said here. I listened to Dr. Dufresne when he was alive, met him and heard his preaching. I listen to his wife Nancy even now and his son Grant. Haven't any of you read the story about David and Saul? It is not a good idea to defame or attack the Lord's anointed and it never goes well for the person who does. I do not know the details of what you are talking about, but nothing that you have said has convinced me that Dr. Dufresne had all of the details and was completely and 100% aware of what went on in Dr. Matthew's church and that he knowingly went along with it. How do you know that he had all the facts? How do you know that he wasn't helping a friend find his way back to God or counseling him to do the right thing, trying to and imploring him to do what was right? What makes you so sure that Dr. Dufresne was knowingly a part of this whole thing? As a pastor, Dr. Dufresne is of course going to counsel anyone who needs Christian advice, and unless you were in the room, you have no idea what was said or why. The bible says, "Judge not, less ye be judged." I am not saying you are right. I am not saying you aren't. Wow! You are totally programmed. So, in your mind, TRUTH does NOT matter to God? It is your mentality that allows Priests to abuse children and people like Ed Dufresne and Bill Matthews to abuse entire families. The Truth "shall set you free", but you'll have to get right with God first to see it. You are totally "programmed" by charismatic megalomaniacs. And your "worship" of Dufresne is proof of that reality. Go over to <http://www.james417.org> and do some research. I have first hand knowledge that not only did Dufresne know full well what was going on at Solid Rock Church, but that he fully supported whatever Matthews wanted to do. The dialogue that you espouse is the typical cult leader's teaching to sheeple to get them to keep their mouths shut about the sins they've uncovered. It is a biblical fact that God calls us to expose such evil PUBLICLY. This is certainly a good forum to do so. Sorry to disappoint you on the god business. He certainly wasn't doing God's business.

I just read a story on Facebook that reminded me of Solid Rock:

Here's a true story. A new person came to the service one week so I made sure I said hi to her after. She was struggling with a lot of things so when I asked how she was doing she began to tear up. I asked if she wanted to talk. She meant to go to the charismatic church down the street. She just relapsed and her friend told her there was a man there who could bind the spirit of addiction. She told me she had already given another church a tithe to help her out and she was now looking for this man to give her this "anointing". She confessed her sins, which really helped. The shame she carried with her secrets was destroying her inside and it helped to look another person in the eye and come out of the secrecy of her shame. I then told her about forgiveness and repentance and that just because she has trouble staying sober for long doesn't mean she doesn't really believe. As well as the falsehood of special anointings and tithing to have sins removed. The real problem wasn't the tithe, or the special anointing to "bind" her addiction, that was bad enough. The real problem was she was lead to believe that there is special anointing that totally removes the desire to sin and that if she was really saved she shouldn't desire alcohol anymore and that she should have complete "victory" over it. She believed that her relapse was proof that she probably wasn't "really" a Christian. This is the epitome of False Teaching. She was already beat down by the Law and needed to hear the gospel. She knew she had sinned; she needed to hear about what to do with it.

WHICH WORKS SAVE?

The list of works necessary for salvation varies from cult to cult. A cult member will often feel that their eternal life is based on all or some of the following:

- Donating money or tithes
- Participation in secret rituals
- Abstaining from certain foods or beverages
- Spending hours each month fund-raising (through literature distribution, or the selling of trinkets or flowers)
- Recruitment of new members
- Observing certain holy days
- Not observing certain holy days or holidays
- Obeying the Ten Commandments and/or other laws
- Baptism by the organization
- Maintaining membership in the group
- Abstaining from medical treatments
- Purchasing the programs or literature needed for enlightenment
- Loyalty and obedience to superiors
- Limiting contact with former members or others outside the group

Although some of the items on this list are worthy goals that Christians should be involved in, none of these help gain eternal life. Salvation is a free gift (Titus 3:5). If someone is trusting any of these good deeds to help them earn salvation, they are not fully trusting Jesus as their Savior.
